

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

between

Philipps-Universität Marburg (UM), Germany

and

National University of Battambang (NUBB), Cambodia

Philipps-Universität Marburg (UM) and National University of Battambang aim to promote cooperation in the fields of education and research, agree to the following:

1. The two parties concerned declare their intentions
  - to encourage exchange visits in the following categories: undergraduate and graduate students in peace studies, faculty researchers, staff and lecturers who will carry out teaching and/or scholarly research, including joint research projects in the field of peace and conflict studies, and other fields agreed by both parties.
  - to exchange information and materials in those fields that are of interest to both universities, in particular about curricula in peace and conflict studies, and other fields agreed by both parties.
  - to facilitate negotiations and arrangements made by faculty members or faculties in the accomplishment of the above exchanges, and
  - to review the status of the cooperation arrangements every four years for possible modification, clarification or termination.
2. Financial arrangements for the exchanges will be made on an individual basis but it shall generally be the responsibility of the home institution to provide travel and stipend support unless other arrangements are made.
3. Officers, agents and employees of NUBB shall remain the officers, agents, and employees of their home institutions.
4. If the result of these contacts should be such as to justify an agreement of cooperation, the two parties concerned shall endeavor to set up a formal exchange program as a framework for their joint activities.
