Jesuit Service Cambodia Support Program to the University of Battambang

Jesuit Service Cambodia (JSC) has cooperated with the University of Battambang (UBB) in the provision of good quality education and training to students and lecturers especially in the Faculty of Science and Technology in 2018. The first official agreement between the Ministry of Education, Youth, and Sport concerning this mission of Jesuit Service Cambodia, through the presence of Fr. Ashley Evans, was signed in 1997. The most recent five-year Project Agreement between the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport and Jesuit Service Cambodia was signed by both parties on the 14th of June 2014.

Now Jesuit Service Cambodia proposes to support to the University of Battambang (UBB) following the guidance of the Ministry of Education, Youth, and Sport with a new project agreement for the next five years in the following ways;

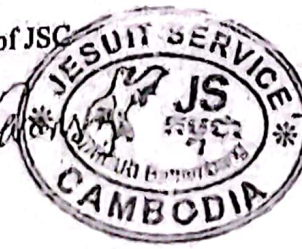

1. Provide scholarship to faculty staff to obtain higher degrees at Jesuit universities such as the Sogang University in Korea or the Ateneo De Manila in the Philippines.
2. Support the translation by faculty staff of technical texts from English to Khmer for use by students at the UBB.
3. Teach specialized short courses or seminars on Mathematics or Philosophy to UBB's faculty members and students.
